

Creative Writing – Vocabulary BK Unit 3

This lesson you will do some creative writing in pairs. This means you get a lot of freedom as to what you can write. There are a few prompts to get you started. Choose one of the following options and start writing. Below the tasks you can find what must be included in your story. Feel free to create a story that is totally bonkers, as long as you stick to the task you will be alright. Good luck!

Tip: Start with a mind web to think about what your story can be about!

Option A

Write a short story which ends with the following sentence:
